Greetings from Metropolitan Asian Family Services (MAFS)!

We are honored to invite you to join us in celebrating more than three decades of dedicated service to seniors in multicultural communities, as a valued supporter or sponsor of our Gala Event, to be held on Saturday, August 29th, 2026, at 5:00 PM at IUVW, located at 1 E Bode Rd, Streamwood, IL 60107.

This special occasion marks more than 34 years of dedicated service to seniors and families across multicultural communities. Since its establishment, MAFS, a nonprofit organization, has been a leading force in social services, positively impacting the lives of thousands across 191 cities and villages. We remain unwavering in our commitment to serving the community every day of the year.

MAFS offers a comprehensive range of integrated services, including public benefits assistance, congregate meal programs, adult day care and home care services, immigration and naturalization support, literacy and educational initiatives, Ayurvedic wellness services, and health and research programs. Through these efforts, we seek to empower individuals and families by advancing education, advocacy, and compassionate care.

We respectfully request your sponsorship in support of our fundraising efforts. Enclosed, please find the sponsorship pricing details for your review. This occasion also presents an excellent opportunity to promote your business or services to a broad and diverse range of ethnic communities. With your generous support, we can continue to strengthen our community services and further our mission of compassionate care and meaningful impact.

Thank you in advance for your generous support and consideration.

Sincerely,

Santosh Kumar
